

1. A foot is placed on a rectangular board.

2. A pencil traces the outline of the foot onto the board.

3. The board is shaped into a shoe last, with the traced outline and two red dots indicating where to place the heel and toe pieces.

